HOW-HOW-HOW

Tribes '80  by Craig Gelband

This year's Tribes are in a close contest. As we move into the second half of the season, competition and spirit are building. Each Tribe is now enlisting the talents of the best informed braves for their Tribal Bowl panels to compete in a contest of knowledge, cultural and trivial.

The Tribal swim meet did not change the position of the leading Tribe, and the standings at the time of this printing, are:

Mescalero	61 3/4
Acoma	56 3/4
Guahebo	45
Mohecan	36

(Black Feet 2 1/4)

 TRIBAL SWIM MEET ***

The swim meet was held on the afternoon of Sunday, July 20. For a day and a half, the four captains and older campers were preparing swim teams which would win the meet. Though the outcome was as the pundits predicted, with the talented Guahebo swimmers emerging victorious, there were many close races, and the 7 man relay race was the upset of the day.

The format for the meet is simple. The bunks were split into three groups, Class A (bunks 1-6) class AA (bunks 7-12) and class AAA (bunks 13-CA). There were medley relays, individual events and the exciting 7 man free relay.

Some of the first place winners were, the Mescalero AAA medley relay team, with Mike Friedman, Rich Pachino, Mike Schwartzman, and J.J. Williams, the Mohican AA relay, Andy Stern, Bruce Wilpon, Ira Berger, Jeff Rosen, Ken Spielman, and A Guahebo team of Sam Polakoff, Brett Cohen, David Friedman, and Eric Sydow. Other first places were Jason Oletsky, Jim Brodie, Jeff Bush, Emilio Ortiz, Robby Soltz (twice), Brian Kishter, Duke Tenenbaum, Mike Stark, Peter Scherr, Tom Laskawy, Jason Scherr & Robin Schlein.

Going into the 7 man free relay Guahebo was in first place with Acoma close in second. The favorite Guahebo lined up their team, but the Acoma planned perfectly. At the end of the race, Acoma victory was the upset of

 ALL MEET TOGETHER...RAIN OR SHINE ***

Each bunk is a ten plus today as we welcome all visitors ... put on clean shirts and smiles, introduce new friends, and show off some of our accomplishments.

The Chirps wishes a good time to all and hopes that you get to see as much of camp that time and tired feet allow. We trust that all Dad's are loaded with film and Mom's are wearing comfortable shoes (or vice versa) because the soccer field is a long way from the waterfront.

The schedule will be as usual for Saturday, with league games in the morning and activities assigned in the afternoon.

Sometime during the day, see the achievement charts on the Social Hall porch, and don't miss the display of workmanship at the Lakeside Craft House.

10:00 to 11:15	Feast Leagues
11:15 to 12:00	Swim
12:00 to 12:30	Meet the staff & visit on campus
12:30 to 1:30	Picnic
1:30 to 3:00	Rest period... visit... (water ski for film)
3:00 to 4:30	Activities
Swim...flag lowering...farewell

LUNCH PROCEDURES AND MEETING PLACES

Lunch will be distributed as follows:

BUNKS 1-8 Pick up baskets on the porch of the Mess Hall entering on the side of the three trees.

BUNKS 9-Lodge...Pick up at the side kitchen door.

EATING PLACES (brothers eat with the youngest in the family)

Bunks 1, 2, & 3... Meet at the Apple tree opposite bunk 1
Bunks 4 & 5... Meet at the three trees
Bunks 6, 7, 8... Meet at the new barbecue
Bunks 9 & 10... At the rock near bunk 9
Bunks 11-14... Outside pool & radio rooms

 PUT A LITTLE GRATITUDE IN YOUR ATTITUDE

(from an editorial idea in Vol.LVIII NO 2. 1977)

In the summer of '77 two old Chickawah campers, Marc Straussberg, and his father "Arty" Straussberg, dropped in for a visit. While at the waterfront watching cannonballs go off the diving board, someone commenting about the personality of a camper said, "he is easily pleased. Small things give him pleasure."

"That, said Arty, is the trick to learn in life. Put a little gratitude in your attitude."

Good thought, we said. We'll borrow it for our campers...and we did, and we do again.

Many of us have so much, that we lose sight of the really important things. Soon we need bigger and better excitement to make us happy.

If so, we must stop to think of what we value most, and be thankful.

We can find joy in just being well, and in a beautiful place...in the birds singing in the morning...in new friends to laugh with...in old friends who are loyal...in learning a new skill...in our fine counselor staff who give us so much...in this day that we share with parents and friends.

Let's all put a little gratitude in our attitude.

Moe, Betty and Mickey

Dear Editor,

I am writing in hopes of correcting a very stupid blunder in the first issue of the Chickawah Chirps this season. In the article covering the production "Night of the Trolls" there was a serious omission, Michael Laskawy played a very important part in the production. I believe the numbskull, dunderheaded, nit wit responsible for this outrage should be drawn and quartered, keel-hauled and severely scolded.

Sincerely,

The Senior Thespian

Ed Note:

We admit the error and apologize.

We are also impressed with the language of the above letter, and commend you for remembering the C in Chickawah this week is for COURAGE!

Pretty cheeky considering it's our stage!

B.J.S.

Dear Editor,

I have heard that you have access to a rare type of wallpaper, called two toned turkey discs. Being in disc form makes it easy to apply. All that is needed is a good slap, and it will stick to any wall surface, Besides adding a nice touch to the atmosphere of a room, the dog will like it too!

Please get in touch with me. I think this will be the newest fad in interior design since wall to wall carpeting!

Sincerely,

Interior Designers of Harrison

 ADVICE TO THE CAMP_LORN

Dear Chicky,

I have a problem. I am a cow. I'm happy that they put in a new putting green for grazing, but it's turning brown again. Where can I graze?

signed,

"Moo, Moo" Cow

Dear "Moo Moo" Cow,

You really do have a problem. Try a mental institution. I hear they will feed you well.

Sincerely,
Chicky

Dear Chicky,

I have experienced that other teams cheat to win. The other day in the Samoset soccer tournament, Camp Wigwam started fifteen year olds in a thirteen and under game. We lost 4 to 0 but we gave them a good fight.

What should we do about these teams?

signed,
Very Angry

Dear Very Angry,
Cheat back.

sincerely,
Chicky

 INSPIRATION AND THE ISLAND ***

by Doug Peabody

In all walks of life, there are major accomplishments. For these accomplishments, we all need to be inspired.

At Chickawah, the Island Swim is a major accomplishment that requires a lot of inspiration. For more than sixty years, the island has inspired many campers to reach its shore.

Then how do we receive this inspiration? If courtesy is contagious, so is inspiration. Former campers inspire new campers when they share their experiences and rewards of the island swim. New island swimmers then inspire others, and inspiration is carried through, forever.....

Some of the "rights, privileges, and honors" of the island swimmer include the ability to use small craft without direct counselor supervision, and to be able to try your hand at waterskiing. The Boothbay Harbor trip also requires the island swim before a camper can participate.

This years new Island Swimmers are:

Jason Oletsky, Scott Greenstone, Eric Kronthal, Randy Moss, Jeff Bush, J.J. Williams, Jon Knee, Brett Cohen, Kenny Spielman, Drew Spergel, Michael Stark, Andrea Tsekenis, Larry Meistrich, Brian Kishter, Jimmy Yerman, Emilio Ortiz, Donny Moss, Cory Friedman, Dean Cohen, Seth Nagdeman, Brad Aronson.

(Ed. Note. Yeaaa Doug and the waterfront staff!)

TENNIS FEVER ***

by Danny Greenstone

"The interest in the sport of tennis for this nineteen eighty season is overwhelming", says Chip Counihan and Joey Zirkman the head tennis counselors. "We haven't seen as much skill and enthusiasm on those courts in a long time."

This years camper participation in tennis is incredible. There are at least forty-five campers who have signed up for the tennis ladder, each of whom is anxious to make it up the ladder as quickly and as far as possible.

There are three varsity tennis teams; one for each age group. Each of these has a strong and bright future.

The first team includes campers who are twelve years old or younger. The twelve and under team is led by Eric Sydow and Michael Mandelbaum. Eric is a nine year old first year camper from Venezuela. He has been playing tennis for most of his life, and is ranked third in Venezuela for his age group. The other members of the twelve and under team are: Bruce Wilpon, Jeff Jacobson, Greg Friedman, Randy Moss, and Jason Oletsky. As of this issue the twelve and under team had one hair splitting close dual match which they lost by one game.

The fourteen and under tennis team together is one huge terror on the courts. Each member gives it his all, and it shows by the scores of their matches. As of this issue the fourteen and under has an undefeated record in dual matches of 2-0, with many favorable outcomes predicted for the future.

The third team contains campers who are sixteen years old or under. This group has only one event to look forward to. It is the Powhatan Invitational which takes place on Thursday, July 24. This year's sixteen and under team is very talented. The members are: Danny Greenstone, James Williams Craig Gelband, Neal Shapiro, Jeff Bush, Brian Goldberg, Robby Stern, and Peter Ellis.

In this camp, tennis fever is catching on; from seven year olds to sixteen year olds, that fever cannot be stopped.

 EYE ON THE NEWS ***

by Jeff Bush

Dateline, Harrison:

Marc Straussberg makes "coke tower" and inspires cheer.. "Get it up, Straussberg, get it up!"... Barry Simon is first camper to achieve goal of expert skier... Joey Zirkman is sent to the piggy table and "faces the wall!"... Joey Zirkman also qualifies for "gross-out of the year" award snorting jello as entire dining room retches... yech!..... Emilio Ortiz's fantasy comes true; candy store on two consecutive nights... Chickawah swim team places third out of seven camps in Samoset Invitational... Seniors score at Kippewa (why else would they lobby for return match?)... Chickawah swim team places third out of seven camps at Wildwood Invitational... C.I.Ts are D.J.'s at Intermediate social... Regon Johnson's bed becomes a water bed... First set of Feast Leagues ends with feast... Berezowsky gaining weight... Camp swealters in long heat wave... waterfront works overtime...

CHICKAMAN ***

"The Time Machine"

by Jeff Grant

Once upon a Chickawah history, Chickaman was changing his clothes from his last adventure. Suddenly a glowing box appeared in front of him. Cautiously he surveyed the box, not knowing what might happen. All of a sudden, Chickaman found himself in the woods with the box, but it wasn't glowing anymore. Without a delay, Chickaman found his way out of the woods and saw a row of tents. It didn't take long to figure out that he was ~~in Chickawah~~ in the 1920's. But why that early in history? Did it have a meaning?

Chickaman went and looked at the year it was set for. 1976? Impossible! Maybe it had some of Hatcher's blood? ...and went too fast?..Maybe...Maybe..

"Steve, Steve, wake up. You have O.D. and boy is Mickey mad." said a camper. "Whew, it was only a dream."

ARCHERY'80

by Phil Goodwin

Since I'm from Pittsburgh it's hard for me to accept continual defeats...however I am constantly reminded of the 1969 Steelers and their sorry record. Well the Chickawah Archery team is in its embryonic stage. After three "respectable" losses to Camp Powhatan, Cedar, and Waganaki, the team is destined to become a winner!

The team is led by some of the finest archers I've seen in a long while. Mike Schwartzman, a veteran shooter, has shown his talents not only as a fine archer, but also as a team leader. Mike Friedman found that a "steady arm could make him a steady shooter", and sure enough this minor correction brought him to the ranks of Chickawah's finest archers. Andre Tsekenis proved that with a tiny bit of luck and a heck of a lot of determination one can be a successful shooter. Scott Greenstone and Scott Saltman proved to be the clutch shooters, who gave us consistent effort. Corry Friedman, Seth Nagdeman, Mike Sheitelman, Mike Mandelbaum, Bruce Bromberg, and Larry Meistrich, round out the team.

As the old cliché says, Rome wasn't built in a day, and I honestly feel that Chickawah has the ingredients to build a successful archery team...I can't help but remember where the Steelers were not too long ago, and where they are today.

QUOTABLE QUOTE:

Larry Meistrich: (hitting the ground and looking up at the volleyball he just missed)

 H2O SKIING ***

by Marc Straussberg
(with Jim Gates...the old guy and Marc Straussberg...the young guy...21 years of experience!)

Waterskiing has once again proved to be a popular sport at Chickawah. Both old and new campers have come down to participate in the program. With so many first year boys in camp we've had a lot of new faces up on skis this year. Among them are Jason Oletsky, Andre Tsekenis, Randy Moss, Jimmy Yerman, Cory Friedman, Michael Stark, Eric Kronthal, Brian Kishter, Emilio Ortiz, Kenny Spielman, Scott Greenstone, Larry Meistrich, Seth Nagdeman, and Brad Aronson.

Many of the veteran campers have made steady progress in the sport. One achievement is especially worth mentioning. Barry Simon, a seven year jacket owner, became the first and only camper this year to pass the AWSA's highest rating of EXPERT skier. Many others are working hard toward the same goal.

The ski team and the 9th annual Chickawah Invitational ski tournament are shaping up strongly. We hope to do well as host.

And remember..Marc and Jim will never leave a skier at the end of his rope!

BASEBALL

by Ira and Barry and Harry

Baseball here at Camp Chickawah has been extremely successful in this 1980 season. Under Head Coaches Ira Berezowsky, Barry Bone, and Harry Klaff, our varsity teams have compiled an outstanding record.

We started off at Camp Cedar with an impressive victory. The 15 and under Chickawah team dominated Cedar throughout, and was victorious by a score of 4-1. Next was a come from behind victory for our 15 and under team as we ousted Camp Powhatan by a score of 6-5. Unfortunately, our first defeat was at the hands of Camp Samoset as they beat our 9 and under softball team, but just a few days later, fielding one of our best 14 and under baseball teams in many years, our boys defeated Camp Waganaki by the amazing score of 21-3. Camp Waganaki took their 2nd loss to our boys later that week as our 10 & under softball team won by a close score of 19-17.

In our most recent games last Wednesday, the 12 and under started off with a disappointing loss to Camp Wildwood 11-6, but the 14 & und. outplayed Camp Wildwood here, winning by a score of 19-3.

We hope to continue our winning ways, but win or lose, with fine effort and sportsmanship Chickawah is always proud to compete!

the day. The Acoma swimmer who surprised us all was Danny Greenstone.

The final score of the meet was Guahibo, 57, Acoma 54, Mohecan 46, Mescalero 39.

Soon to be completed is the popular Tribal Bowl.

 DEAR CHICKY ***

Dear Chicky,

During a social, my friend jumps around the dance floor thinking that he is a lobster. When the song "Rock Lobster" comes around, he grabs my hand and says "do the lobster"

I am tired of him embarrassing me in front of the girls, so what should I do?

Sincerely, Embarrassed Friend

Dear Embarrassed Friend,

My best suggestion is to run away from him when the song comes around, but if he is too quick for you to run away, then you must bear with it and look bored.

Sincerely, Chicky

(Ed. Note: That's what we think. When in doubt...look bored!)

(cont. from p.3)

Chickawah shows its talent with the "Not ready for Camptime Players", "the oddball Camper", and J.J. The Magnificent...Bill the waiter gets the food out first and wins a standing ovation...All of the Chickawah family is sorry to say goodbye so early to new Greek-French friend Andre Tsekenis...Aurevoir Andre!... 6 make the Powhatan Invitational semi finals... World Cup Soccer tournament off to a good start...Pat Kilroy evened the score with bunk 12...They saw the bear..where?..falling on Howard Swimmer..

 BASKETBALL

by Fish

A lot of hard work and sweat has been going on down at the courts this summer. The 12 and under Basketball team after an opening defeat at the hands of Cedar(despite an 11 point effort by Andy Klaff) scored an impressive 18-15 win over Powhatan. It was a fine team effort with Steve Yerman and Mike Mandelbaum in control of the boards and good outside shooting by Andy Klaff. The 14 & under lost to Samoset despite a hard fought effort. Leading under the boards were Rich Pachino & Tom Klaff, with Jim Yerman & Mike Schwartzman scoring.

THEATRE REVIEW ***

TALENT SHOW: by John Wilde

Last Saturday's entertainment was an example of Chickawah talents at their best and worst. An act called Bunchkin and Bunchkin wowed the audience with bird calls. The Muffin Man blew it! Another slightly less successful act was "Something Tasteful", which wasn't. The evening brightened with a magic act by J.J. the Magnificent (Williams) and an amusing skit by Bradley Solmsen, David Friedman, Jordan Weinberg, David Eisenman, and Benjie Morrell with a special guest appearance by Mickey Saltman. Another skit "The Jynx Car" more or less fell flat! Peter Ellis and his Not Ready For Camptime Players stopped the show...to clean up the stage.

Eric Sydow and John Wilde did it with a bi-lingual duet of "It's A Small World". Marc Straussberg with his dazzling juggling and his glib storytelling made a high point in the evening. And Jim and Steve representing the kitchen made a fabulous ending to a spectacular evening. All in all the Talent Show was one of the most successful events in the Chickawah Theatrical season.

BUNK NEWS

by Brad Solmsen

An interview with 13:

This week's bunk news comes from the popular bunk 13. Larry Meistrich (the rock lobster) is the top contender for the Buffoon Award, which is given out very rarely. I talked to Scott Greenstone and asked him what he thought about camp. He said it was O.K. His favorite activity is water skiing. Next I talked to Mike (rubbers) Sheitelman. When I asked why he wore rubbers so much he answered, "because they are easy to put on". Then I talked to Richard Pachino who was a bat-boy for the Baltimore Orioles. I asked Richard was it fun to be a bat boy and he said yes it's great because you get to meet all the players. I spoke with Frank Goldman next. Frank is a big fan of the Orioles too, and is optimistic about their chance of winning the pennant. Next on my list is Mike Friedman, here 7 years, Mike is trying for Junior Shield Boy. Then I talked to Peter Scherr who runs 3.6 miles a day and is a great cross country runner. Last but not least I talked with Chip Counihan, counselor in 13. I asked "How is your bunk doing in inspection?" and he answered, "Not so well."

END (it could be)

DIRECTORS: MOE AND BETTY STEINBERG

"MOE" STEINBERG...holds a B.S. degree in Physical Education and a Masters degree in Education with graduate preparation in Elementary and Secondary School Administration, and Fine Arts. Included in his thirty years of public school teaching experience, is public recreation in boys clubs and settlement houses, and direction of temple youth groups.

Now retired from the public school scene, Moe gives his complete attention to Camp Chickawah, and to his own sculpture and graphics studio which generated a one man show in Westbury, N.Y.

BETTY STEINBERG...a camper and counselor of many summers, is a graduate of the Women's Physical Education Department of New York University, and holds a Masters degree in Education from Teacher's College, Columbia University. In the "off" season she teaches at Jamaica High School, in Queens, New York, holding classes in Health, Physical Education, Modern Dance, and Yoga...At camp she is available for special programming, sewing, solving, and typing this newspaper...and community singing at no extra cost.

MICKEY SALTMAN...HEAD COUNSELOR...and a Chickawaian all of his life, is a Phi Beta Kappa, Magna Cum Laude graduate of Amherst, and holds a masters degree from Harvard, having studied there on John Woodruff Simpson scholarship and Alfred R. Sloan fellowship (which means free). During the school year Mickey is chairman of the Science Department of Bronxville High School in Westchester, N.Y. where he teaches Chemistry and Physics. Now retired from the Ardsley, N.Y. school board, he is enjoying some prestige as the Chairman of the Advisory Board of the National Science Teacher's Association magazine, "The Science Teacher", and just to keep busy he is a member of the College Entrance Examination Board...(watch for old Tribal Bowl questions on next year's S.A.T.'s)

SUSAN SALTMAN...YOUTH ADVISOR..TROUBLE SHOOTER...HEAD OF CANTEEN...AND Mickey's wife, is a graduate of Cortland State Teacher's College with a degree in Early Childhood Education. She teaches at the Home School of Mohawk, Corp, Westchester, N.Y., on the pre kindergarten and kindergarten levels. At Chickawah she keeps a weather eye on all of the junior campers, is everybody's best gofer, and Mickey's home organizer..(it isn't easy)

JOHN BAKOWSKI...HEAD OF SHOP...and a counselor at Chickawah for many moons ...with time out for two wars...is a graduate of Oswego State University and has a Masters degree from Teacher's College, Columbia University. John teaches Industrial Arts in Glen Head, Long Island. The shop at Chickawah housing boats underneath, was built for John by Uncle Chick, so that he could direct projects in manual and power wood, ceramics, lapidary, electronics, printing, and science workshops in rocketry and automotives. John never runs out of ideas for projects at the Lakeside Crafts shop. Visitors always welcome....and be sure to say hello to Mechick, the cat!

WILLIAM FISHER...known to all as "Fish"...BASKETBALL..JUNIOR GROUP ADVISOR.. is back for a fourth summer at Chickawah by popular demand. Fish is a graduate of Miami University of Ohio, where he earned a B.S. degree in Math Education. Now a geometry teacher at Forest Park High School in Cincinnati, Ohio, he is also assistant varsity basketball coach, and he also coaches the J.V. When he taught at middle school he coached touch football and wrestling teams...At Chickawah he keeps the basketball court jumping with skills and drills, and is "big brother" to all of our youngest campers.

CHERYL FISHER....SAILING.....married into the Chickawah family, and as sailing counselor and Fish's home organizer has hardly time to call her own. Cheryl taught sailing at Camp Rappatak in 1977, and has brought a wealth of knowledge to our smallcrafts program. A graduate of Bowling Green State University in Bowling Green, Ohio, Cheryl teaches sixth grade in Green Hills Middle School., Cincinnati. In the Chickawah family (for the second summer for better or worse) Cheryl is our first bona-fide female skills instructor, and adds beauty, brains, and class to the beach!

RUTH NERDERMAN...NURSE...is a graduate of Ohio University with a B.S.N. in nursing, and is presently working on her M.S.N. at Ball State University in Indiana. Her hospital experience includes Union City Memorial Hospital in Indiana, Cincinnati General in Ohio, and Ball Memorial Hospital in Muncie, Indiana. At Chickawah Ruth gives plenty of T.L.C and bandaids.

RUTH...(cont.) She is also an expert on the salt water gargle and it must be working because she has had two rooms to rent in the infirmary all summer!

STAFF BY BUNKS:

HARRY KLAPP...LANDSPORTS...is a graduate of the Chickawah C.I.T. program a former Tribe Chief, a winning! Blue and Gray captain, and a Junior Shield Boy. Harry lives in Baltimore, Md. and is a graduate of The McDonogh School where he played varsity baseball and soccer and was a formidable wrestler. Harry will attend Vanderbilt University in Nashville Tenn. next year where he is leaning toward a major in history. Now, a Tribe Advisor, Harry divides his time between the field and Bunk one, where he is using his real talent!....being a big brother!

TOM ENGLE...CRAFTS...hails from East Lansing, Michigan and is a Pre law student at Michigan State University. Tom will be 22yrs. old in August, (if Jonny B. lets him). His hobby is woodcraft, and it was this interest that led him to Jonny B.'s shop. Between the shop and bunk one, Tom has had little time to be lonesome. (also the telephone keeps ringing)

BARRY BONE...BASEBALL...is twenty years old and a pre med student at Wabash College, where he is majoring in Bio, and minoring in Chemistry. Barry is from Indianapolis, Indiana, but his summer home is Camp Chickawah. He is on the College Varsity Baseball team and at camp, he shares his skill, sparkling practice situation comedies, and good humor, with the baseball classes and varsity teams. (He's also becoming a fairly dependable softball pitcher) Barry hopes to go to Medical School. (we hope so too.... four more years!)

EDDIE FRIEDMAN..WATERFRONT...is another home-grown counselor graduate of the Chickawah C.I.T. program. Eddie is from McAllen, Texas, where he made his mark on the debating team of his high school, ranked third in the state, and nationally in the top ten! (we don't argue with him) Eddie will attend Cornell Industrial and Labor Relations School. At Chickawah, he uses his swimming knowledge, as an accomplished swimmer and Water Safety Instructor, to prepare campers for their American Red Cross swimming classes, and for the coveted Island Swim patch.

GREG ELLIS...SOCCER...is another graduate of the two year Chickawah C.I.T. program, a former Tribe Chief, and Editor of the Chickawah Chirps. Greg is a graduate of the Birchwathen School in New York where he played varsity lacrosse and soccer. He will attend the University of Pennsylvania Wharton School of Business. As a bunk counselor this summer he is majoring in patience and fortitude!

TOM PETERS...GOLF...is twenty years old and from Grosse Point, Michigan. Tom is a junior at Texas Christian University where he is a pre law major. He was a varsity golfer at Grosse Point South High School, and ranked 2nd on a championship team in his Jr. year. At Chickawah he is practicing his "mouth piece" arguing cases, teaching skills down at the golf cage and putting green, and chaperoning golf trips to the local course.

MARC STRAUSSBERG...WATERSKIING...is another extraordinary home grown Chickawah counselor, in his tenth summer! (half of his life). He will be a junior at Brown University this fall, where he is majoring in knowledge (and Tribal Bowl questions) In camp he is famous for many astounding feats, including his stint as losing Blue and Gray captain, 4th place Gee Tribe Chief, Junior Shield Boy, juggler while telling a story, feature performer on the Chickawah Gong Show as the Unknown Counselor, and leader of the popular gymnastics workshop. In New Jersey, he also won fame as State Champion in gymnastics on the side horse.

GARY ARKIN...VOLLEYBALL...is yet another graduate of the two year C.I.T. program and a former Tribe Chief and Blue and Gray Captain. Gary hails from Miami, and attends the University of Texas at Austin where he is a sophomore. In his freshman year he made the National Dean's List, and played varsity volleyball, and also became a member of the ZBT fraternity (a dubious honor). He also made the College Registry and the Ten Best Dressed Counselors of the Year list. On the volleyball court he is all business, teaching campers how not to carry.

JAMES PARKINSON...BASKETBALL... is 19 years old and business major at Penn State University. He grew up in Pittsburgh, Penn. where he went to Fox Chapel High School and played on the varsity basketball team. James will turn 20 in August (if bunk 5 lets him). His major sport in high school was football, playing offensive and defensive tackle. At Chickawah, big Jim teaches basketball skills, and travels on Fish's travelling Counselor Basketball Team. (sort of like the Harlem Globe Trotters... only different)

PHILIP POTE...PIONEERING...CAMPCRAFT... hails from South Bend, Indiana, and is a business major at Indiana University, having transferred from the University of Colorado where he studied for two years. Phil played varsity basketball and was on the swim team in high school. He is a Star Scout, and at Chickawah shares his merit badge skills with campers, while finding new and intriguing trails in the White Mountains for hikers. On days off, for variety, he climbs mountains. (?)

JIMMY WEINSTEIN...BOATING... is another graduate of the two year C.I.T. program, an Editor Emeritus of the Chickawah Chirps, a former Tribe Chief, a present Tribe Advisor, a winning Gray team captain, and an undefeated Tribal Bowl panelist! Jimmy will attend Columbia University in the fall. At Chickawah he keeps up with the news in the New York Times and keeps us informed, while at the same time helping as many campers to pass boating skills and qualify for sailing. In his spare time he thinks fondly of the carefree days when he was a C.A.!

JOSEPH ZIRKMAN...TENNIS... another old camper in his third summer on staff, will be a junior at Duke University this year. Joey played varsity tennis and soccer in High School, having had his biggest team success when he was a member of the Jamaica High School City Championship soccer team. A protege of Wayne Wallace, former Chickawah Tennis Pro, Joey has logged many hours teaching private lessons and group classes on the Chickawah courts.

REGAN JOHNSON...WATERFRONT... will be 20 years old in October, and lives in Carmel, Indiana. He is a student at Purdue University, majoring in Engineering. A Water Safety Instructor, Regan teaches swim clinics, and coaches the swim team. He is an Eagle scout (the highest rank in scouting) and very much at home in the camp scene, therefore he turns up in a variety of places, and throws very long passes in Flag Football!

IRA BEREZOWSKY...BASEBALL..... in his fourth year on staff is another home grown counselor having been a Tribe Chief, Blue and Gray Captain, C.I.T., C.A., Tribe Advisor, and much winning Feast League Captain. Ira will be a senior at Oneonta State University in Sept. (is he really twentyone?) and has changed his major to political science. Now he is either Pre-dental or pre-law, and says he will be able to defend himself in mal-practice suits! When not coaching the ball team or helping campers to pass baseball buttons, or chasing one of his younger bunkmates, Ira can be found under the three trees writing Tribal Bowl questions.

JOHN WILDE...DRAMA... is from Wayland Michigan, and was a student at Michigan Tech. His major went from Civil Engineering, to Liberal Arts, to Theatre, and when he returns to school he plans to major in Education. John performed in all of his high school productions, and in 15 shows at Michigan Tech. At Chickawah he has directed one act plays, and a star studded talent show, and is working on excerpts from the Broadway Musical, Oliver, now casting. When not on stage or painting sets, he can be found on the steps of bunk eight playing (and singing) his guitar.

DOUG PEABODY...HEAD OF WATERFRONT... is twenty six years old and a graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College with a B.S. in Education. Doug has been active in camping since 1974, and was Aquatics Director at YMCA Camp Lincoln in New Hampshire prior to his Chickawah post. Doug is from Salisbury, Mass. where he worked for three years as a Youth Activities Coordinator and was organizer and coach of a basketball team for the East Parish United Methodist Church. His experience also includes an association with the Big Brother program at Northern Essex Community College. Doug is teaching at the Eagle Hill School, in Hardwick, Mass. At Chickawah he is BIG brother to the men of bunk nine, runs the waterfront with a firm benevolence, and still takes his sun glasses off to speak in the Mess Hall amidst an approving cheer!

GREG KLIMOWICZ...CANOEING... is 20 years old and hails from Grand Rapids Michigan. A student at Michigan Technical University, Greg is a junior studying Mechanical Engineering. Greg is another Boy Scout and another Eagle Scout, and has had much camping experience. At Chickawah he is teaching the art of paddling a canoe and has some newly qualified campers ready for their first canoe trip.

PHIL GOODWIN...ARCHERY... is 20 years old and a Speech and Communications major at Penn State. Phil is also an old camper and counselor. He developed his interest in Archery at Camp Belgrade where he was a camper and a counselor, where he started by helping out and got hooked on the sport. At Chickawah the range is beginning to look like a bee hive, with campers shooting and qualifying for their Camp Archery Association awards.

ROB LOUVIAUX...PIONEERING... is from Louisville, Kentucky and attends Ohio State where he is majoring in Electrical Engineering. Rob is (you guessed it) an Eagle Scout, and became active in Explorer Scouting having been a member of Explorer Post 120 in Toledo, Ohio. He has created an orienteering course at Chickawah, with a trail that he has laid out that covers a large area of camp grounds and woods, and is intended to teach the skills of map and compass. He also spends much time on the trails of the White Mountains with groups of campers. We don't know who has more fun.

MARTY ROBERTS...SOCCER... is 22 years old and hails from Cincinnati, Ohio. Marty is a graduate of John Carroll University with a B.S. degree in Psychology, and plans to go to grad school in a year for either an MS in Psychology or an MSW. He played varsity soccer for four years in college and also made National Dean's list for two years. At Chickawah Marty teaches and coaches soccer and has initiated the fourth Chickawah World Cup Soccer Tournament.

PAT KILROY...HAM RADIO... is from Grand Rapids Michigan, and is a student at Michigan Technical University majoring in Electrical Engineering. His call letters WDSLAQ, are now the call letters of the Chickawah base station, and he can be heard "calling C.Q...C.Q. at most times when the radio shack is open. Pat is running a novice radio class for all those who are interested in getting their novice licenses, including Uncle Moe. He has put theory books in Mickey's office and they can be signed out by any camper wishing to study. Studying during vacation? We're impressed! 73's

CHIP COUNIHAN...TENNIS... back for a fourth summer at Chickawah, with one summer away, is from Massachusetts, and was a student at Beloit College in Wisconsin where he majored in Government and International Relations until he got the wanderlust. He was captain of his Milton Academy tennis team, and played varsity tennis at Beloit. He is presently Front Office Manager at the Colonial Inn in Concord (it has 2 lounges and 2 restaurants...plug). Chip is definitely going back to school in January, and will major in Hotel Management. On the Chickawah courts he is once again teaching groups, individual lessons, and coaching the varsity teams, and surviving in bunk 13!

JIM GATES...WATERSKIING SPECIALIST... is in his tenth summer as a Chickawah counselor, and has seen many skiers learn and grow at the ski cove. One of them learned and grew to be his assistant. Jim is a graduate student of Architecture from Vermont Technical Institute, with an M.A. in Industrial Arts from the University of South Maine at Gorham. Jim teaches Industrial Arts and Drafting at Lawrence Jr. and Sr. High Schools in Fairfield, Maine.

Last summer we wrote of Jim's pleasure in seeing a building of his own design completed, The Christ Episcopal Church, in South Paris, Maine. We were all proud. At the ski cove we are always proud of Jim's tireless efforts to get everyone who would like to try up on skis and passing American Water Ski Association badges.

MARK ELLIOTT...PIONEERING...PHOTOGRAPHY...NATURE... has been teaching 9th graders since 1974, in Fort Lauderdale Florida, Indiana, and Michigan biology, zoology, earth science, and math. Now studying for his masters degree at Indiana University, Mark hopes to work some day as a geologist either in a National Park or with the Bureau of Mines. At Chickawah he leads sorties into the nearby White Mountains, and to local gem mines, and supervises the photography lab, teaching campers to process film and assisting with the plans for a 1980 yearbook.
